ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kaushal Kumar Agrawal is a seasoned GST and Income Tax Litigation Practitioner with over 25 years of dedicated experience in handling complex and high-stake tax disputes across India. His professional journey has been rooted not in routine compliance, but in litigation consultancy — beginning from the stage of issuance of notice and extending through adjudication, appellate proceedings, Tribunal litigation, and preparation for High Courts and the Supreme Court. His philosophy is “KNOW LAW DEEPLY, FIGHT FEARLESSLY”

Kaushal Kumar Agrawal serves as a Faculty Member at NACIN (National Academy of Customs, Indirect Taxes & Narcotics), contributing to professional capacity building within the tax administration ecosystem. He is a Taxmann-published author and the Founder of TaxByKK.com, a litigation-focused professional platform. He also conceptualized TaxByKK.ai, an AI-powered GST research assistant designed to enhance structured legal research and drafting precision.

Through TaxByKK.org, a Tax Litigation Consultation Network comprising over 100 members, he mentors and collaborates with tax professionals across India. His YouTube platform is followed by more than 48,000 Chartered Accountants, Advocates, and tax practitioners who seek structured insights into GST and Income Tax litigation.

Beyond courtroom practice, his mission is to strengthen India’s tax litigation ecosystem by combining practical advocacy experience, systematic drafting methodology, and intelligent research tools. His training initiatives are built on real litigation exposure — aimed at enabling professionals to transition from compliance-centric work to disciplined, strategy-oriented tax advocacy.

This book reflects that philosophy: law examined through the lens of litigation, precision, and appellate preparedness.
